Dolphins At Georgia Aquarium

The world's largest aquarium is opening its $110 million dolphin attraction April 2. AT&T Dolphin Tales includes a 25-foot-long underwater viewing area and a Broadway-style theatrical show with actors and dolphins. A two-story, 84,000-square-foot expansion to the aquarium has been in the works for three years to house the exhibit and 1,800-seat auditorium. Many details about the show are being kept secret but we're betting on something spectacular from one of the South's most popular attractions.

Family Safaris

Book your family safari at Offbeat Meru Camp and sister property Offbeat Mara Camp before March 31 and get six nights for the price of five. The camps, located in northern Kenya, offer an affordable safari experience for families that includes walks through the bush with an armed guide, fishing, and relaxing in the camp's infinity pool. Rates start at $375 per person per night, with discounts for children and teens. http://www.offbeatsafaris.com.

Pick of the Week

One of the things I love about the pareo I bought at Caribelle Batik in St. Kitts is that it's made out of cotton and not rayon like you usually see in markets. To find similar sarongs, check out the huge selection at Fairwinds Sarongs, where you can choose from prints or solids as well as select your favorite length. Prices start at just $16.95 if you act quickly (there's a sale!) Check out the sarongs as well as other beachy stuff at http://www.fairwindssarongs.com/
